RODRIGOZADROFILMS • EST. 2010

Originally from Buenos Aires, Argentina, I've dedicated over 12 years to creating cinematic wedding films that capture raw emotion, authentic moments, and timeless love stories.

With a deep passion for storytelling and human connections, I intentionally limit the number of weddings I film each year. This allows me to pour my full creativity and care into every project, ensuring your film feels uniquely yours.

Every detail is personally edited by me — crafting a heartfelt, artistic narrative that doesn't just document your day, but lets you relive the laughter, tears, and joy forever.

DO WE CHOOSE THE MUSIC FOR OUR FILM?

Music plays a huge role in the storytelling and emotional tone of your film, so it's something I put a lot of thought into as part of my creative process. That said, I'm always open to hearing your preferences or suggestions—whether it's a certain style, artist, or mood you love. I want the film to feel like you, so feel free to share anything that inspires you.
